In order to participate, the student must speak to the specific instructor in which the low grade was earned, and upon working on an improvement plan of action, the student must sign an agreement that outlines the specific course of action (e.g. learning contract, extra work, reading assignment, etc.) the student will follow to improve his/her grade. This agreement must be signed by the instructor and submitted to the Artistic Office.

If the student's grade has improved since the grading period, the instructor may instead note the current grade in the space below and submit a copy of this form to the Artistic Office.
